Whilst the majority of pupil information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain pupil information to us or if you have a choice in this.

What are the legal reasons for us to process your personal information?

We are required to process personal information in accordance with data protection legislation and only do so when the law allows us to. The lawful reasons we have for processing personal information are as follows:

1) To comply with the law

We collect and use general purpose pupil information in order to meet certain legal requirements and legal obligations placed upon the school by law. We therefore are required to process this personal information for such purposes even if you have not consented to us doing so.

If you would like a copy of or further information regarding the statutory authorities that underpin our legal obligations, you should contact the school in writing.

We are able to process personal information when there is an emergency and/or where a person's life is in danger.

In these circumstances, we will provide you with specific and explicit information regarding the reasons the data is being collected and how the data will be used. You have the right to withdraw your consent.

4) To perform a public task

It is a day-to-day function of the school to ensure that children receive the education and support they require. Much of this work is not set out directly in any legislation but it is deemed to be necessary in order to ensure that pupils are properly educated and supported

The lawful basis for schools to collect information comes from a variety of sources, such as The Education Act 1996, Regulation 5 of the Education (Information about individual pupils) (England) regulations 2013, article 6 and article 9 of the GDPR. The DFE and local Authorities require us to collect certain information and report back to them. This is called a 'public task' and is recognized in law as it is necessary to provide the information. We also have obligations to collect data about children who are at risk of suffering harm, and to share that with other agencies who have a responsibility to safeguard children such as the police and social care. We may also share medical information when necessary with the school nurses, counselling services, occupational health services with parental agreement or when required by law.

We must keep up to date contact information with parents/carers for emergency contact.
